COURSE OF STUDY.

FIRST YEAR.

Old Testament Literature: General Introduction; Hebrew (Green's Grammar and Chrestomathy.) New Testament Literature: General Introduction; Special Introduction to the Gospels. Biblical History. Sacred Geography and Antiquities. Exegetical Theology (selected Epistles of Paul.) Homiletics, Extemporary Speaking.

SECOND YEAR.

Old Testament: Hebrew; Special Introduction to the Pentateuch, Historical and Poetical Books. New Testament: Life of Christ and Exegesis of the Gospels. Didactic Theology (Theology proper, Anthropology begun.) Church History. Theory of the Christian Ministry; Constitution of the Church; Homiletic Criticism.

THIRD YEAR.

Old Testament: Hebrew; Special Introduction to the Prophets. New Testament; Acts of the Apostles; Special Introduction to the Epistles. Didactic Theology (Anthropology. Soteriology.) Church History. Church Government and Discipline; Pastoral Care; Ordinances of Worship.

The regular course is completed in three years. But every facility is afforded to such as desire to remain for a longer period with a view to the further prosecution of their studies. And the following post-graduate course has been added to the instructions of the Seminary.

FOURTH YEAR.

Old Testament: Messianic Prophecies; Comparative Semitic Philology. New Testament: Special Introduction and Exegesis continued; Greek Philology with a particular consideration of the Hellenistic Dialect. Church History (Existing Denominations.) Polemic Theology. Ecclesiology. Ecclesiastical Law and Discipline; Preaching.

Exercises in Composition, Reading and Delivery without notes, throughout the course.

On Sabbath morning the Professors preach in rotation in the Seminary Chapel. In the afternoon a Conference is held in the Oratory, at which the Professors conduct the discourse on a subject previously announced, and the Students conduct the devotional exercises.

ADDITIONAL PRIVILEGES.

Private classes, when desired, in the Oriental Languages, and other collateral subjects.

Instruction in the Modern Languages, by competent teachers, at the student's expense.

Gratuitous admission to the Library and Lectures of the College of New Jersey, upon application to the Faculty.

Special instruction and exercise in the art of Elocution, without charge to the students, by the best qualified teachers in the country.

Opportunities for active usefulness and observation of pastoral life, are afforded in the churches of Princeton and its vicinity, there being nearly twenty Presbyterian churches, besides those of other denominations, within some ten miles of the Seminary.

Complete arrangement are made on the spacious grounds of the Seminary, for Gymnastic exercises, according to the most approved methods for sedentary men.

LIBRARY.

The Seminary library contains over twenty thousand volumes; embracing all kinds of reading matter calculated to interest and instruct the theological student. The library building is commodious and supplied with all the modern appliances for convenience of reference to books. On Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, opportunity is afforded to students for selecting and taking books from the library for reading and reference in their own rooms. In addition to this the library is open two hours each week day, affording the students an opportunity of consulting and reading any books they may desire.

ALEXANDER SOCIETY.

The Alexander Society is an organization supported by the students, under the auspices of which the reading room of the Seminary is carried on. Here may be found at all times a variety of daily and weekly papers, both religious and secular. In addition to these, a number of the standard magazines and reviews, of foreign as well as home publication, are constantly kept in convenient places for reading and reference.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

1. Testimonials of personal character and good standing in some Christian church.

2. A previous course of liberal study, attested by diploma, Presbyterial certificate, or examination.

3. A certificate of regular dismission in good standing, when the student comes from any other theological institution.

EXPENSES.

Board, from $3.50 to $4 per week; washing, from $1 to $1.50 per month; fuel, from $8 to $15 per annum; general expense fund, $10; library, $1. Total of necessary expenses for the Seminary year, from $175 to $200. These prices are nearly double what they were before the war: but it is expected they will soon be reduced.

There is no charge for tuition or for room rent. Rooms in the Seminary and Brown Hall are supplied with the necessary articles of furniture. Students provide their own bed clothing, stoves, &c.

Students who need it are aided from the Seminary funds, or by the Board of Education, or by the liberality of private benefactors.

Books can be bought at a liberal discount, and many classbooks are provided in the library. Gas-light may be had in the Seminary buildings, at the option of the student.

THE ACADEMICAL YEAR

Opens on the first Thursday of September, and closes on the last Wednesday of April.
